WHO IS UN-AMERICAN?

Prominent San Diegans Defend de Aryan's Rights

What's the Big Idea?

Yes, what's the big idea of suddenly trying to cancel my citizenship and have me interned as an alien for the duration? Who is behind this plot? and why? Who is it that placed my name on the list of the Jack Tenney "un-American fact-finding" committee to have me smeared by fake "confessions" of my alleged friendship (?) with the German-American Bund because I attended some of their meetings together with every other newspaper reporter in town, in line of duty as reporter for the BROOM!

These are questions that every patriotic San Diegan is asking today. "If they can do it to de Aryan, they can do it to anyone of the thousands of naturalized citizens!"

What sort of citizenship is this "naturalized" citizenship that can be cancelled the moment a man has intestinal fortitude to stand up and demand that the administration live up to its oath of office and protect the Constitution of these U. S. A. instead of tearing it down, as is being done flagrantly, right and left and the Republic is being abolished to give way to an "American" version of Communistic Bureaucracy!

It is quite easy to frame a man in these days of hysteria. All it takes is some stool pigeons who are willing to appear before a federal grand jury in one of our politically corrupt metropolitan cities & swear that the victim said thus and thus. Such "evidence" is sufficient to procure an indictment and jail the "culprit", set his bail high enough so he won't be able to make it and in my case, stop the issuance of the paper and the presentation of the radio program long enough to ruin my business and scare my advertisers, so they won't have any further business with that "un-American and subversive de Aryan". That's what is behind this plot of sudden try at cancellation of citizenship.

But there is one thing my persecutors have failed to figure on again, as in the past. During the NRA hysteria they imagined they had me licked because I refused to bow to the Blue Crow and they had me boycotted right and left with the blessings of FDR, the President, who had sworn to protect my constitutional prerogatives. But the good Lord had planned it differently. The NRA got licked and I triumphed.

Folks, I know it looks bad, when you listen to the tall tales of my persecutors. But take it from me never be foolish to try to convict me on circumstantial evidence, because the "script of my life is written" in such a way as to smoke out the Pharisees and betrayers of truth, to entice them to tackle me, and then the fun begins. Yes, the darn fools bite everytime and every time they get licked. Just look back at the long list of events and you'll see how marvelously intricate it is and simple, too. I stand with the truth. I keep my oath and fulfill my obligations most scrupulously, while they pretend to do so and then, when it comes to the showdown in the last act before the curtain falls, who wins out, every time?! — and why?

LET'S PROTECT THE BROOM!

The game is to get me embarrassed financially and smear me sufficiently so nobody would dare do business with me, till I am broke.

Well, I have always been broke.

The paper and the radio program have been paid from week to week from the proceeds as they came in. Now it is up to you to see to it that I have enough money on hand to even stand a siege in jail and still issue the paper and, if needs be, have my family do the broadcasting till I am out again.

My persecutors mean business. This war hysteria is their last chance. They dragged me before the Tenney Committee, now they imagine it produced enough "evidence" to cancel my citizenship. I am ready for the fray.

It was a long, long time in coming. It marks the beginning of a new era in these U. S. A. when a white man will not have to ask permission from an organized and well financed minority of racketeers for the right to live, to do business and worship God according to his conscience. I am one of the pioneers in this new era. It is up to you to stand by me. Take your choice on which side of the fence you wish to stand.

For the time being you will have to say it with dollars and cents to assure the continuation of this publication.

WHO IS UN-AMERICAN?

In last week's radio talk I told you that two years ago I was informed that certain groups, one a racial organization, the other a group of Labor and Communist agitators, would attempt to have my citizenship cancelled because I was hitting their activities too hard for their comfort and exposed their un-American practices of depriving Americans of their right to work or do business unless they cowed to these two groups. I have been harassed and persecuted by them all the time, but I never let up. Now there exists a federal statute that protects every citizen in the exercise of his constitutional rights. Whenever two or more persons get together for the purpose of intimidating or coercing a citizen, especially an editor of a legally recognized publication, to stop him from exercising the rights guaranteed him by the laws of this country, there the statute provides that such conspiracy be deemed a felony, punishable by fine and imprisonment in a federal penitentiary. I have witnesses here in San Diego who can testify that such conspiracy has existed against me for the last three years. Those witnesses were approached and told to discontinue doing business with me at the peril of being boycotted. Many of them obeyed, others refused. The names of those who did the conspiring is known. I received the information under the blanket of editorial confidence and have not used it against the conspirators for that very reason. But now they are forcing the issue into the open.

It is a well known fact that I am a crusader, that at election times I have swung the balance of elections in the past, not once but time and again. How nice it would be for some people to have me disfranchised and locked up in a concentration camp. Besides, bear in mind: A bill has been passed by congress by which the military commander of any area may remove any citizen, without giving him a reason whatsoever, from such territory and each commander is to have a civilian group of advisors telling him which people to remove. The folks who want me removed figure that it would be their ace in the hole. The way they slipped my name to the Jack Tenney Committee to have me investigated here last month at the Civic Center, they could slip my name to the military commander of this area to have me removed as a dangerous person to the hot cargo secondary boycott. And they could have anyone else removed who displeases the Civilian Commissars.

In order to stop this persecution men who realize that I am being made the first victim have come to my aid. Thomas Whelan wrote to Francis Biddle that he considers me a good citizen working for the good of the country.

You, too, may write to the Attorney General and tell him what you think of this persecution. And those who believe I ought to be deported, why don't they write also? This is a free country—if I am a dangerous man, be sure to tell the Attorney General about it! This is your chance! That is not only your right, but your duty. By the same token those who know me and realize how fast this country is being turned into the hands of racketeers of one sort and another should stand with me, shoulder to shoulder, to protect our Republic against this encroachment. What sort of citizenship is this when they can take it away from a fellow who opposes dictatorship by a minority?!

District Attorney

Upholds de Aryan

Honorable Francis J. Biddle,
United States Attorney General
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

It has come to my attention that Mr. C. Leon de Aryan, who is a naturalized citizen of the United States and a publisher of a local weekly paper entitled "The Broom", is under investigation by the Federal Immigration Department and that an officer from the Los Angeles office of the Federal Immigration Service has been investigating him with the idea of taking steps to cancel his naturalization papers, causing his deportation.

I have known Mr. de Aryan for the past thirteen years and during that period of time have always believed that any act of his was motivated by sincerity of purpose. He has taken extreme views on many public subjects, some of them, in my opinion, amounting to almost fanaticism; but I must say again that I have never doubted his honesty or sincerity of purpose.

He is, in my opinion, a worthwhile citizen working for the good of the country; and in my opinion his naturalization should not be cancelled nor should he be deported because of his courage to express his views.

I can write this letter without any bias in Mr. de Aryan's favor because of the fact that he has often opposed me politically and may do so again. However, one of the fundamental principles upon which our government is based is that every citizen has the right to freely express himself either by printed or spoken word.

In the event that a further attempt is made to cancel Mr. de Aryan's naturalization I trust that you will refer to this letter and, if you desire, call upon me for further expression.

Very sincerely yours,

THOMAS WHELAN,
District Attorney.

"INCORRUPTIBLE", SAYS BANKER

Honorable Francis J. Biddle, etc.
Dear Sir:

Mr. C. Leon de Aryan, a naturalized citizen of the United States, and publisher of a local weekly paper, "The Broom", is I understand, under investigation by the Federal Immigration Department for the purpose of taking steps to cancel his naturalization papers and thereby making him liable for deportation.

Mr. de Aryan, in my opinion, is completely honest and incorruptible; he is a crusader but because of his sincerity, holds the respect of the business men of San Diego. He has taken extreme views on many public questions but is fundamentally patriotic and does what he honestly believes will be helpful to his adopted country & to his people. I do not always agree with Mr. de Aryan, but he is undoubtedly exercising his Constitutional rights to express his opinion. I believe our country would be much better off if we had more men of Mr. de Aryan's fearlessness and almost fanatical desire to correct abuses which are only too prevalent in our democracy.

This letter may be used in any way you see fit to the end that justice may be done to Mr. de Aryan.

Yours very truly,
J. W. SEFTON, Jr.

Editors, P. M.

New York City.

Gentlemen:

In your issue of P. M. of February 24, 1942, you are carrying on page 7 a picture of myself, seated at the table in the Civic Center Council Chambers, San Diego, answering questions of the "Jack Tenney" fact-finding committee.

I suppose that ignorantly of the facts involved in the matter, you caused an erroneous text to appear under said picture, namely:

"California Fascist: Leon de Aryan, publisher of a tabloid noted for anti-Semitism, admitted friendship with German-American Bund to fact-finding committee of California Legislature."

For your information: I am opposed to all sorts of "totalitarian" regimes, being an ultra-conservative Republican. For quite a time I carried in the masthead of my paper the notation: Published by a rugged Individualist.

According to ideology I am a dyed-in-the-wool-Republican who has continuously stood up for the Republic, its constitution, its guarantee of individualism and have quite assiduously denounced both systems of "totalitarianism" abroad and the "American" adaptation of that same totalitarianism under the guise of NEW DEAL here. If you intend to portray me for what I am you should substitute the corrective: California Individualist, for your misrepresentative "Fascist". In time of peace I might take such an error on your part as "one of those things" which occur in the office, but in time of war and knowing the reason why this "mistake" was perpetrated upon me, it becomes criminal libel to call me a Fascist, since we are at war with the Fascist countries.

May you also be informed, that at the end of the fact-finding investigation, Assemblyman Tenney stated for the record that he could not call me "anti-Semitic" because the inquiry developed merely that I had engaged in a fight over business with some local Jews, who attempted to destroy my publication. Anti-Semitism, I take to mean an individual who hates Jews because they are Jews and advocates their persecution, for no other reason but because they are Jewish, by race or religion. You may rest assured that you have been completely misinformed on that subject. I neither hate Jews nor advocate persecution, on the contrary, I stood up for them when they were persecuted in San Diego, as the record proves. Nor should they persecute me, as they are doing at present, again.

During the investigation by the fact-finding committee I admitted having attended two Bund meetings. I did that as a reporter for the BROOM. Reporters for all the other papers attended it also. That is the ONLY ADMISSION in regard to the German-American Bund "friendship" which you will find in the record and it takes too much stretching to turn it into an "admitted friendship".

I shall assume for the present that inadvertently you published said description in good faith. I give you the legal time limit to republish the same picture with the suggested corrections.

As I said before, if this were a period in which we were NOT AT WAR with the Fascist countries, I would laugh off your "mistake", but since I know where that "Mistake" originated, its aim and purpose, I am hereby serving notice on you that after the expired legal time limit for the correction I shall proceed to file such legal action against you, should you not have made the correction as suggested, or as it would appeal to you to effectively present the facts and the truth in the case, as will be necessary to protect myself against any and all damage accruing from your libelous publication.

Sincerely yours,
C. LEON DE ARYAN.

"AT THE PERIL OF PERSONAL SAFETY"

To the Honorable Francis J. Biddle, etc.

Dear Sir:

I wish to add my statement to various other statements as I understand already made, that Mr. C. Leon de Aryan is a man who has always stood for the right things, even at the peril of his own personal safety. These things were not done with malice but to try to correct a wrong that he felt was being done.

I think to take away his naturalization would be a grave injustice. I hope that any step in this direction will be withdrawn, that Mr. de Aryan may go his way and work on as he has in the past, which I think is something we should all be proud of.

I wish Mr. de Aryan to be allowed to use a copy of this letter in anyway he sees fit.

Very respectfully yours,
CHESTER D. GUNN, Coroner and Public Administrator.

"ANTAGONIZED CERTAIN ELEMENTS", SAYS SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE.

Honorable Francis J. Biddle, etc.
Re. Mr. C. Leon de Aryan, Owner and Publisher of "The Broom".

I have known Mr. de Aryan for some ten or fifteen years and have read his paper weekly over a period of many years. I think that I can say that I know him intimately. He is a man of pronounced views which he does not hesitate to express and his expressions are not modified by public sentiment, threats or fear of unpopularity. He fully understands and appreciates his constitutional rights and exercises the freedom of the press. Often I have disagreed with him but his right to express his views in his public journal is equal to my right to disagree with him. The curtailment of his right of expression strikes a blow at my right to disagree. He has antagonized certain elements of our people by his frankness and by the vigor of his assertions and has acquired a great number of personal enemies among those whom he has criticized who seek to suppress him by every means within their power.

I understand the Federal Immigration Service in Los Angeles is investigating this gentleman. I wish you to know, without comment on the merits of his investigation itself, that such matter is probably instigated by certain individuals or groups among those whom he has criticized in the group. I have every reason to believe that Mr. de Aryan is faithful to the highest ideals of his adopted country and that he fails to be influenced by any alien ideology.

Sincerely yours,
EDWARD J. KELLY
Judge, Superior Court.

The music caster of a school near Bradford had been lecturing on Mozart, Beethoven, and other great musicians, when one of the scholars was struck by an original thought. "How is it, sir," he asked, "that musicians are always so ugly?"

The music teacher looked embarrassed.

The seeker after truth suddenly realized with horror that his question might be taken personally, and hastened to make amends. "Of course, sir," he said, tactfully, "I only mean good musicians."

F. D. R. Vetoes Bill To Register Communists

The following appears in the Chgo. Tribune, 2-10-42, headed "Bill to Register U. S. Communists Vetoes by F. D. R.": "A bill under which the Roosevelt administration was committed to require the registration of the communist party was vetoed today by the President.

"Rep. Martin Dies (D., Tex.), chairman of the house committee on un-American activities, said he was not surprised by the President's veto message. He called attention to predictions often made by him in the house that the administration never would permit legislation requiring the registration of the communist party to become law.

"The reason is obvious," Dies said. "Such registration would expose the thousands of communists who are holding key positions in the government."

"Never Enforced Against Reds" The bill vetoed by the President was designed to strengthen the act of June 8, 1938, which requires all agents of foreign principals to file a registration statement at the state department but which never has been enforced against the communist party.

"In his veto message to the house of representatives, Mr. Roosevelt said the bill was designed as a peacetime measure 'to force the disclosure of the activities of foreign agents who may abuse the hospitality of our country or weaken our national unity by fostering discord and distrust.'

"Our participation in the war in cooperation with the 25 united nations 'whose defense we deem vital to our defense' presents a different situation, the President said . . .

The Tenney Committee Again

Assemblyman Jack E. Tenney,
355 So. Broadway,
Los Angeles, Calif.

Dear Jack:

Thanks for your prompt attention to my inquiry about copy of the transcript for C. Leon de Aryan.

Let me make another inquiry concerning de Aryan. What, in general, did you tell an interviewer on the radio the other night concerning de Aryan? A friend told him of the interview, but failed to hear your comment concerning de Aryan.

I owe de Aryan the same counsel I would try to give any constituent who calls upon me. I believe this is of interest to de Aryan, not as a mere matter of curiosity, but because some Federal men have come around, indicating that they might try revocation of citizenship proceedings.

I discounted the idea, but it is natural for de Aryan to be somewhat annoyed, at the least. I would not suppose that you had anything to do with it, although plenty of jackals might follow your trail without your knowledge. That, precisely, is one feature I don't like about such a committee.

Many persons may consider de Aryan eccentric, but for all of that, he is too smart a man to have made any slip in his citizenship. I would not believe that he falsified anything, or that he would have any reasons or desire to do so.

He is bound to have plenty of enemies here, who would be glad to stir up phony charges if they could. Witness that fact that somebody put him on your list. Didn't I tell you last summer exactly what he is, and didn't he turn out to be exactly what I said? He hates both Communism and Fascism, or any form of a "totalitarian" state. Like yourself and the committee, he has given more attention to Communism than to Nazism. I consider him unwholesomely prejudiced against the Jewish people, but just to that extent his utterances on that line can have little effect in a relatively-free country, where there is still a semblance of free speech and free press. But in this connection he has not belonged at any time to any anti-Jewish movement or organization, nor to any Fascist organization. Also he acknowledged a personal quarrel.

I hold no brief for the most of de Aryan's views. Time and again I have been exasperated with things I have read in his paper—almost to the point, at times, of saying something insulting when I should meet him, although thanks to my better judgment I never did. The point I want to make is that there is no possible basis for any attack on him except on the ground of his opinions and published utterances. What he says and thinks is his business. What he says and thinks, should be answered in kind, if at all—that is to say, he should be answered in speech or in print. Anything else is un-American. I might say, also, that de Aryan is far more liberal than most editors in admitting into his paper an answer or a statement that he does not himself agree with.

I have known de Aryan, and read his paper intermittently for years. Often he has rendered a public service by things he printed. He rendered a public service when he carried his sales tax case to the Supreme Court and won it. He has a tax case pending now, in which he is dead right, and if he carries it through he should win.

It riles me up as quickly to see dirty business attempted against de Aryan as to see it attempted against Harry Bridges or against the despised Communist, William Schneiderman, or any one else. If de Aryan has knowingly violated any law, let him be prosecuted. But I have no idea that he has. Some of these government agencies should be doing something more useful in times like these. If they were properly investigated themselves I think they would remind one of what you see in the barnyard when you turn over a wet board.

Sincerely,
PAUL RICHIE.
Assemblyman, 79th District.

P. S. Somebody even asked the mayor to ask de Aryan to resign as an air raid warden. I believe de Aryan told me the mayor did ask his resignation.

Editor's Note:—I am not prejudiced against the Jewish people. A Jew is as good a human being to me as anybody else. What I hate is treachery and modern Phariseism as we find it in the NEW DEAL. Roosevelt, Frankfurter, Morgenthau, Hillman, Henderson have done more damage to the REPUBLIC and subverted the Constitution than a foreign enemy could have accomplished. We are drifting, step by step, into a Communist dictatorship. The only promise Roosevelt ever kept as a public official is the one to Churchill: to get us into the war as an active belligerent.

Navy Ammunition Called Defective

WASHINGTON.— In a broadcast from Sydney, Australia, Martin Agronsky, representative of the National Broadcasting Company, charged that defective ammunition handicapped American naval men fighting the Japs in the Far East.

He reported a Yankee lieutenant as saying that 70 per cent was defective, and, therefore, it was impossible for the gunners to work out a "fire pattern" which would enable them to bag Jap planes.

Senator La Follette put the story in the "Congressional Record". Naturally, it created a sensation in Washington. The Navy Department has promised an inquiry.

DIST. ATT. WHELAN CONDEMNS DE ARYAN'S POLICY, FANATICISM (From San Diego Labor Leader)

District Attorney Whelan stated that in a letter to Attorney General Francis J. Biddle he had recommended against the cancellation of the citizenship of C. Leon de Aryan, but stated further that in his letter he said that he did not agree with Dr. Aryan's principles and that in many instances, in his opinion, de Aryan's ideas amounted to almost fanaticism.

However, Whelan pointed out that war time hysteria should not be seized upon by any group, either the enemies of labor or capital, to destroy the rights guaranteed by American Democracy.

Freedom of speech, either expressed by the written or spoken word, is still a fundamental part of our government, and all the gains that have been made by organized labor have been made under the theory that labor had the right to freely organize and freely express itself.

If the right to express oneself freely is to be penalized by summary federal authority, then the foundation upon which our government is built will be shaken and the cause of democracy and, consequently, labor, will suffer, Whelan pointed out.

The Case Against Aspirin

Is It Only a Pain-Killer?

In Consumers Digest Bulletin for January, 1939, George W. Fiero, Ph. D., writes: "Recent statistics indicate that the annual consumption of aspirin in the United States is equivalent to over seven billion tablets or something like 55 tablets a year for every man, woman and child in this country. A survey of substances dispensed by druggists in filling physicians' prescriptions, showed aspirin second only to distilled water."

"Advertising has made a variety of claims for the drug, many of which have been found to be false and fraudulent—as indicated by seizures and prosecutions by the Food and Drug Administration when such claims have been made on the label. Cures were claimed for: tooth ache, rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia, sciatica, sore joints and muscles, neuritis, gastric disturbances, sleeplessness, influenza, sore throat and gripe and periodic pains.

"An aspirin distributor's widely advertised claim for use of the drug as an antiseptic gargle was the cause for seizure on grounds of false and fraudulent statements of therapeutic value. Claims were made that aspirin would not only relieve pain but would induce sleep, due to sedative action, whereas, according to the Federal Trade Commission, the drug may in some cases relieve pain but has no sedative, nor hypnotic properties and has no direct effect on inducing sleep.

"Advertising claims have been made again and again that aspirin is harmless, by such statements as: 'No harmful after effects follow its use—it does not depress the heart—it cannot harm the heart—it is always safe—perfectly harmless, you can take it every day without harm'. The truth and fact according to the Federal Trade Commission, is that: 1. There are persons by whom it may not be safely taken even in small or moderate doses; 2. There are MANY persons who may not safely take into the system amounts in excess of the prescribed or usual dose; and, 3. There are MANY persons to whom the use of such tablets in excess of the amount is highly dangerous and may be fatal."

The following, with respect to aspirin is quoted from pages 791 to 797 of the authoritative work "Pharmaco Therapeutics, Materia Medica and Drug Action" by Solomon Solis-Cohen, M. D., and Thomas S. Githens, M. D., published by Appleton & Company in 1928.

"Aspirin is known chemically as Acetylsalicylic acid. It is stable in dry air but in contact with moisture, it gradually decomposes into salicylic and acetic acids. It is dispensed in 5 grain tablets and the dose is given as 5 to 10 grains, or 1 to 2 tablets.

"Salicylic acid was first used in 1875 as a surgical antiseptic. Soon after, it was proved to be an effective antipyretic (for reduction of fever). Its specific action in rheumatism was announced in 1876.

"Salicylic acid may be obtained from natural salicylates such as the oils of wintergreen. Synthetic salicylic acid is prepared from natural methyl salicylate. It is said a poisonous compound is formed with quinine. Acetic acid is found in all vinegars.

"Salicylic acid is readily absorbed in the alimentary tract and circulates as sodium salicylate. Elimination of salicylic compounds takes place chiefly with the kidneys, begins quickly within ten or twenty minutes after the acid has been swallowed. It may not be completed, however, for eighteen or even as much as forty-eight hours, and when repeated doses have been given over several days, traces may be perceived in the urine for 7 to 8 days after administration has ceased. Elimination thus fails to keep pace with absorption and accumulation results."

A GOD - FEARING MAN

To Attorney Gen. Francis J. Biddle — Washington.

Dear Biddle:

Not being too sure that you remember me I wish to remind you that I attended St. Mark's while you were at Groton, and roomed with Alfred Biddle. I met you in Cambridge.

I understand from an article in the S. D. Union, that there is a move afoot to investigate C. Leon de Aryan, publisher of the S. D. Broom, a weekly paper, with the purpose of canceling his naturalization papers.

I have followed Mr. de Aryan's career in S. D. for many years and am a great admirer of his. I think he is one of the most fearless and courageous private citizens in taking public stands which he believes are essential for the welfare of our country, of any man I know.

I have for years intermittently, heard his radio broadcasts and glanced through occasional issues of his newspaper and have agreed with many, many of his issues.

Both in his talks and his writings he is a most God-fearing man and a great lover of real democracy.

Unless the F. B. I. has positive information of a dangerous character regarding his activities, I sincerely hope that he is allowed to remain a citizen and to continue his courageous liberty loving stands.

Yours truly,
HENRY LIPPITT,

Clear Understanding Of Citizenship

The Hon. Francis J. Biddle, etc.
My dear Sir:

It has been revealed in the local press that efforts are being made to launch a Federal investigation of Mr. C. Leon de Aryan, with a view to depriving him of citizenship and deporting him from this country.

Conceding the right of the government to determine, by means of proper investigation, the loyalty of any naturalized citizen, I also accept my responsibility to testify in behalf of any such citizen whom I feel to be unjustly accused.

Mr. de Aryan has been known to me for nearly fifteen years. For the past two years he has been broadcasting a weekly program of comment over this station. Every word that he has spoken has been presented to me in writing in advance of broadcast and I have had an excellent opportunity to measure the man in the light of his opinion. On many occasions I have felt required to edit his copy; not because it was subversive but because he sought to express opinion on matters so sharply controversial that I questioned the wisdom of broadcasting the material. In every instance of such editing he bowed to my judgment and scrupulously observed every deletion or correction which I indicated. Never did he offend by going beyond the text of the script which I had approved.

In his business relationship with the station he has been meticulously honorable. Every obligation has been fulfilled to the letter. I have never known him to dodge or waltz once his word had been given. In matters of business I have found him worthy of every confidence.

With respect to his status as an American citizen, I have often wished that I had as clear an understanding of the privileges and obligations of citizenship as he has. Like most fourth-generation Americans, I am prone to accept for granted prerogatives & advantages which to him are privileges of priceless and precious worth. Too, like many of my kind, I often fail to measure the weight of my personal responsibilities as an American; there is nothing in my background which inspires me to compare my fortunate lot with that of those in other lands. The American way of life is the only one I have ever known.

Not so with Mr. de Aryan. He came to this country in search of the very way of life to which I was born. To him, American citizenship is a condition of freedom which he can hold against a background of oppression and evaluate in the light of that comparison. I am satisfied that he would eagerly give his life in defense of that freedom.

It is true that he has offended many by the zeal and vigor with which he has attacked every issue which he felt to be inimical to the American philosophy. That zeal has led him into conflict with racial, religious, political and economic groups from time to time, but he has never given ground. For what he believed to be right he has never failed to fight. Frequently I have deplored arguments; we have quarrelled noisily and debated at great length—but on sober second thought I have never been able to question his motives. Much as I am at odds with him on many matters of a controversial nature, yet I heartily respect his intellectual integrity and have the utmost confidence in his militant loyalty to the United States.

For permitting him to broadcast I have been severely censured on occasion, but as an executive of an American radio station I would be recreant to my trust if I denied him the right to be heard. Reserving only the right to edit his material in the light of what I believe to be the public interest, I place my facilities at his disposal with full confidence in his integrity as an American citizen. To deprive him of his citizenship on the ground that he has been guilty of subversion or fraud is one thing; to expose him to the risk of deportation because of any charge less serious is quite another. I am fully confident that investigation will reveal him to

GREAT CARE SHOULD BE TAKEN

Hon. Francis Biddle, etc.
Dear Sir:

Mr. C. Leon de Aryan, of this city, informs me that an investigation is being made by the Federal authorities with reference to his alleged subversive activities, writings and utterances.

I have known Mr. de Aryan for a great many years, have from time to time read his weekly newspaper, The Broom, and have heard him and his writings discussed by a good many people. I must say that I do not believe him to be disloyal to our government. From time to time I have been in thorough disagreement with his theories and statements, but I have never been, nor am I now of the opinion that he was disloyal to American institutions of government.

I can see no objection to a thorough and complete investigation of Mr. de Aryan's activities, but I certainly desire to urge that great care should be taken to prevent such investigation being made the vehicle to persecute, or to limit his right of free speech.

Very respectfully,
JOE L. SHELL,
Judge of the Municipal Court.

AN OUTRAGE

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

We think it an outrage that your loyalty, as an American citizen should be questioned. We don't always agree with you, but we can vouch for your fearlessness, honesty and loyalty. We trust Atty. Whelan will be successful in defeating deportation proceedings.

Yours truly, LULU M. RIGGLE

Inoculation of Honolulu Population Set April 1

HONOLULU.— The military governor's office announced that all persons in Honolulu and nearby districts, totaling 200,000 will be required to take immunization treatment against smallpox and typhoid fever beginning April 1.

People were urged to visit their private physicians, who will be supplied with free vaccines and asked to supply treatment economically.

A concert was being held at the village hall, and old John Briggs had been placed at the entrance to collect the tickets. Just before the concert commenced John left the door and went in search of the organizer.

"I say," said John, evidently perturbed, "I think you'd better get out quick, sir."

"Whatever do you mean?" asked the organizer.

"There's going to be trouble for you, and no mistake."

"Explain yourself man. What sort of trouble is it?"

"Bigamy!" gasped John. "I've let in two women who says they were the organizer's wife; now there's a third wanting to come in."

A Union Pacific shopman at Salina had been drawn on a federal grand jury and didn't want to serve. When his name was called he asked Judge Pollock to excuse him. "We are very busy at the shops," said he, "and I ought to be there."

"So you are one of those men who think the Union Pacific couldn't get along without you," remarked the judge?

"No, your honor," said the shop man. "I know it could get along without me, but I don't want it to find it out."

"Excused," said the judge.

Rehearing Denied In Picketing Case

SAN FRANCISCO.— The California supreme court denied nine C. I. O. unionists a rehearing in their case to overthrow convictions under a Yuba county anti-picketing ordinance by re-affirming recent decisions holding picketing unlawful when accompanied by violence.

In its original decision in the case, the court ruled picketing becomes violent when pickets forcibly stop automobiles and "intimidate the occupants by gathering in large numbers".

Chicago Cited for Promoting Coast Fear

SAN FRANCISCO.— Chicago is the center of "fear promoters" who seek to create a bombing scare on the Pacific coast to "move everything movable" to the middle west, it was charged by George North, chairman of a co-ordinating committee on public relations for San Francisco.

North's report named Chicago as the chief offender, and said the "fear mongers" also are raiding Atlantic coast centers. He suggested creation of a "war chest" to combat their activities.

Chicago lobbyists, North charged, have called upon Washington officials to urge removal of industries from coast centers.

"YOUTH" is a state of mind—not a time in life.

By George Starr White, M. D.

Dogs vs. Adolescent Children

Dear Doctor: I read once a paper written by Dr. Hanish in which he warned against dogs and cats in households where there were children. First, he said that dogs and cats hair has at times entered the esophagus or the wind-pipe and caused irritations with many complications.

Second, has said that pets, and especially dogs, act as magnetic vampires upon the life forces of the child, depleting the body during the processes of close contact with the animal.

Third, he definitely warned against contact of adolescent children with dogs of the opposite sex, because the dogs directly are sexually affected and vice-versa.

Would you give us your version . . .

de ARYAN.

Dear Friend de Aryan:

Replying to your letter, which I am returning, I would say that probably when Dr. Hanish warned against dogs and cats in households where there are children, he wrote better than he knew.

I have been often criticized for advising parents get rid of animal pets, when they live in the cities. Those who live in the country, I advise not to have cats, dogs, rabbits, or feathered pets in the house where they can be handled.

I have known many severe skin troubles coming

Dr. Geo. Starr White from the handling of birds; and a whole book could be written giving reasons why dogs, cats and rabbits should not be household pets. Ringworm and fleas are only just two of the reasons.

A child can be brought up to be kind to all animals, including the human, without having to have pets. I have seen so many mothers who were kinder to animal pets than to their own children, that I cannot speak strongly enough in favor of what Dr. Hanish says about the inadvisability of such pets.

As for their "magnetic influence" on children, this is no imagination. I used to have mechanical tests to show this; but I learned that life was too short to try to change all the notions that have been bred into families for ages.

There are some adults who have an abnormal affection for any animal except the human. I have sometimes wanted to suggest that there be a week set aside for kindness to children, besides the one for kindness to animals. It might be a good idea if more humane workers concentrated on children. Many persons I have known, have been so taken up with the "protection" of every other animal, including lobsters, that they had no time to look after their children. That a person who is kind to animals, will be kind to humans, does not always follow—I have known "animal lovers" who were actually cruel to their own children.

Of course we, in the medical professions, have many dealings with many "mental cases"; and know that very few persons are what can be called "normal" according to clinical findings. The present upheaval throughout the world is a burning example of insanity among the so-called "sane" people. There could be no wars if all persons, especially those in authority, were truly sane. After this conflict, we may have to reclassify "sane" and "insane" persons and "normal" or "abnormal" propensities, and our definitions of these terms.

With all best wishes,
GEO. STARR WHITE, M. D.

Federation of Nations

(Concluded from last week)

According to the "Oracle", all the leading nations must be drawn into this controversy; and they are being drawn in now because it is a World's War. And, of course, a World's War means years and years of struggle, because in a World's War there is no such thing as yielding, and it takes years to find a common ground of agreement. When two parties disagree the third can step in and bring about a settlement, but when thirteen people disagree, who is going to step in and settle? When there are two one tells his side, and the other his, and there is a happy medium upon which they can agree, but when thirteen disagree, there are no two alike. Every one has to tell his story, and thus it takes a long time to reach an understanding; all have to wear themselves out. The world is in that state, they all have to wear themselves out telling all they know, each and every one exhausting all the knowledge he possesses on destructive lines. The White Race, being inventive, must exhaust itself. When the pinnacle of destruction once has been reached then understanding becomes possible.

We know the work that is before us and the world, and it is a work of necessity. Whatever we have longed for, we necessarily had to find the means by which to gain it. And so it is with the White Race. It has had its desires, wishes, longings, appetites, and so on, and it must take all the rest with it.

The Race has entered the field of artifice prematurely, before it was able to make use of it, before realizing the value of it. Thus there must be a reckoning. Whatever tactics may be used by one and another has no bearing upon the final issue. The Germans may cut off the ears of the Frenchmen, and the Englishman may cut off the ears of the Germans whenever they can—it is tit-for-tat. We cannot be on either side for we have to be on all sides, and take them all into consideration. They all deserve a good whipping, so there must be no sympathy; we must not sympathize with any of the Nations, since ours is the Saviour Nation, the one to step in at the proper moment to raise the White Hand of "Halt!" It is a case of justice, simply plain justice, and justice must be meted out. They are all like children, they all have to be whipped into line, and in time they will come to an understanding. And once they come to an understanding, they become valuable to one another.

So it is with the world. It will grow valuable at last, and naturally we will progress with the rest of the world. It will draw the lines of demarcation to a point of certainty, and then we can go to work with ourselves, but not until the White Race gets settled. Why? Because we are of the White Race; but we do not want to remain with them; we feel that we no longer have things in common with them. One point alone already separates us; the fact that we have seven meatless days a week, while they have only one or two at most, and even then they are not honest about it. That one point alone separates us. Then there are other points even more grave, still more serious. We will never be able to entertain the ideas of the White Race, any more than the White Race is able to work hand in hand, or collectively, with the Yellow Race, the Dusk, and the other races down to the Black Race. It is impossible for the White Race to mix and mingle with the Yellow Race; likewise it is impossible for us to mix and mingle with the White Race, only as a means unto certain ends, just as the Yellow Race makes use of the Dusk Race insofar as it is to their advantage. Yet, while socialization is in progress we must, as a people, separate ourselves, otherwise we cannot advance or gain all this life has in store for us. We cannot gain what we would wish in our hearts—not our minds, but our hearts.

"Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in royal blood;
The fellowship of kindred minds,
Is like to that of God."

And may the Peace that surpasseth all the understanding of man come to each and every soul that constitutes the membership of the Aryan White Race. This is our wish. Be it so.

BIBLE STUDY

By L. SABIN KENWORTHY, B. S., D. D., LTD.
Instructor of Translators

LOS ANGELES.—What the Churchmen say about their Bible has a bearing on what they say about their "salvation". "False in one", the old proverb had it, "false in all". On the frontispiece of their Book stands a Rule to test them by. For John says, "Test the spirits, whether they are false or true". Spirits here comprehend those in and out of the flesh. The Churchmen are in this category.

These are the words of their fly-leaf: "Translated out of the original tongues and with former translations diligently compared and revised." These raise the question: What were the original tongues? Their answer is "The Hebrew and Greek". To which we enter a general denial, which places the burden of proof upon them. We allege that the original tongues or languages Yoho-wah spoke to the Jews was either Hebrew or Aramaic. He never spoke Greek nor Latin.

Now we proceed to disprove their statement further. On their second Fly-leaf occur the following: "The Holy Bible Containing The Old and New Testaments". Now these are not in the Original tongues. They are the imaginings of the Latin Translators. Testamentum being a Latin word. There is no foundation for these in the Original Tongues.

Third; The name of their first Book, is "The first Book of Moses called Genesis", which is from the Greek Tongue. There is nothing in the Original Hebrew that warrants this fiction. The Hebrew had a single name for its first Book, their Book has a double name: "The First Book of Moses" is from one of the "former Translations" but was not "diligently compared", since they did not give "Hioh" for their Book "Job" as Martin Luther did, although he failed in his spelling of the Great Poem. It is "HIH-YOV". Then the fourth Book is named "The Fourth Book of Moses, Called NUMBERS". Which is from the Latin Tongue, and the first conglomeration is from the German Tongue.

Now we proceed to the Version. This is of the Greek and Latin Tongues. The first verse follows the Latin in punctuation, and is at variance with the Hebrew. The first makes a compound sentence, the latter is two simple sentences. Hence the thought is very different.

"For wisdom God creates", is the first sentence of the Hebrew. Then in the 6th verse of the first Chapter, is the word "firmament" which is a transliteration of the Latin word "firmamentum" which is from the Latin Verb "firmo" signifying solid, strong, firm.

In the 8th verse the "good Book" calls "firmament" heaven. A strange thing. The Hebrew word signifies a tenuity, vacuity, expansion. The last Leeser's where he breaks with Jewish tradition. So these 6th, 7th and 8th verses make void the "WORD OF GOD", according to Jesus.

Then we show one passage from their "New Testament": Luke 14, 5. Here follows the THOUGHT of the Peshitta, in the Aramaic; "But He asked them: 'Who is among you, should his son or his ox fall into a pit on the Rest-day, would not quickly lift and bring him out?'" The Aramaic is sensible, unrepentitious clear and plain, as the Aramaic word "peshitta" signifies. But the Greek translation is narrow and wordy with no added idea. Their "ass and ox" do not add any idea. But Yoho-shuag presented a wider idea, the animal and the human. That is lofty and convincing.

Control of County Hospital

(Friday 9:45 pm, KGB, March 20)

The daily papers carried last Tuesday the following news item: "A warning that the County Hospital's staff would resign if Osteopaths were permitted to practice in the institution was sounded before the San Diego county board of Supervisors when a three-cornered dispute arose over conditions of a $896,000 federal grant for additions to the plant."

There could be no greater blessing to the county hospital than the resignation of the medical staff which refuses to co-operate for the good of the patients and the taxpayers, but adopts the same tactics used by the labor racketeers to control the county hospital rather than abide by the laws of the state of California. Doctors of Osteopathy who are physicians and surgeons have equal rights under the law with medical doctors.

One of these days I hope the board of supervisors has nerve enough to call the bluff of the medical staff and just tell them to go ahead and resign. You'll be surprised how many good doctors, medical doctors, osteopaths and chiropractors will gladly abandon the tyrannical attitude of the present staff and all of them join hands to serve the public and the needy patients rather than exercise political control over the county hospital as the staff insists on doing at present.
